EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION

WEBINAR-WORKSHOPS

Effective communication is a skill that each of us works to develop every day—whether it is participating in classroom discussion, presenting your point of view, fostering business opportunities, developing personal relationships, or engaging in friendly conversation. Perceived class and cultural differences can magnify this challenge resulting in failures to both deliver and understand the intended message. Through a series of activities and individual speeches, these workshops will help students and upcoming professionals; master the skills necessary to become effective communicators.

Workshop and presentation will be delivered by Mr. Joseph Simpson and Dr. Muhammad Ahmed from their home country USA and will be webcast live to ensure audience interaction.

Who Can Attend?
